

WEDNESDAY
SEPTEMBER, 17, 2014
9 AM - 1 PM

PLYMOUTH DISTRICT LIBRARY
223 S. MAIN STREET
PLYMOUTH, MI 48170

REGISTRATION STARTS AT 9 AM
FIRST SESSION STARTS AT 9:30 AM

Plymouth District Library
223 S. Main Street • Plymouth, MI 48170
734.453.0750

The Library is located east of Sheldon Road and west of I 275. It is north of Ann Arbor Road and south of M 14. The nearest cross street is Church Street, which has a stoplight. Pull around to the rear of the library into the large municipal parking lot and use the building entrance.

TLN
Adult Services Committee
FALL WORKSHOP Putting
One Foot
in Front of the Other

DOING MORE WITH LESS: IDEAS ON HOW TO SURVIVE AND THRIVE

How does a library do more with less? How do you effectively serve your patrons without sacrificing programming and key services. What roles do your staff and community play when resources are limited? Jenni Gannod, Director of the Blair Memorial Library, will share her insights and tips as to what works for this Class III library.

LENDING A HELPING HAND: VOLUNTEERS AND LIBRARIES

Libraries limited on staffing, may turn to volunteers to help out. Susan Stoney, Volunteer Coordinator for the Plymouth District Library will present on basic volunteer philosophy. She will include the history of volunteers at Plymouth, and what steps are needed to obtain, train and maintain a volunteer staff.

BEYOND THE BOOK SALE: FUNDRAISING FOR PUBLIC LIBRARIES

Creativity is unlimited when it comes to fundraising. A panel of three will present on their experiences with fundraising and how others can duplicate the same ideas at their own library. Speakers include: Lynn Severini, Circulation Department Coordinator from Gross Pointe Woods Library, Emily Meloche, Adult Librarian from Chelsea District Library and Carol Souchock, Director of the Plymouth District Library.

T L N F A L L W O R K S H O P